SUBSCRIPTION RATES: One Year. Three Months.

The Times-Herald has been urgent in its efforts to get an organization to pull for the advertry. We are falling behind the mish. procession and not receiving the attention from homeseekers that the magnificent country and opportunities merit, simply because Burns Saturday to visit relatives blow our own horn for we are off Monday afternoon. the big railroad lines and people have no means of securing infor- 2 held an annual meeting at the mation of us except by our own school house Monday afternoon for efforts. A. to the west looking for homes and we have land for them. We have an abundance of room and J. W. Shown is taking a trip with worker in any good cause.

Our business men realize the importance of an organization but never seem ready to put a shoulder to the wheel, that is altogether. It isn't particularly lack of interest but lack of unity. Some of the most enthusiastic, while honest in their efforts are working at cross purposes. This could be all remedied by an occasional meeting of the business men an exchange of ideas upon matters of mutual interest and importance and a systematic, united effort.

The Times-Herald hopes something definite may be accomplished along this line at once. We have matters of vital importance to the business men of this city and the immediate good of Harney county that demand attention Capital stock paid to at once. PETER PAID THE BET.

During the progress of counting the ballots the evening following the general election there were a number present keeping tally on the various officers. Among these were P. C. Peterson, a staunch republican and W. E. Smith who is as much a democrat as the other is republican. The former is a sheepman, the latter a cattleman and during the land around it than any other city count these two citizens got into in the state. a discussion as to the merits of the two candidates for sheriff from the Lawen neighborhood last which resulted in a bet of a steer Wednesday. against a mutton.
